

LANGUAGES OF NOVA SCOTIA CALL FOR APPLICATIONS GUIDELINES:

The Atlantic Filmmakers Cooperative is accepting applications for five people to make their first short film in their language as part of the Languages of Nova Scotia Initiative. Successful applicants will receive film training and funding to create their first short film.

To be eligible to apply to this initiative, applicants must indicate a connection to one of the following five languages being celebrated by the Languages of Nova Scotia Initiative:

- A' Ghàidhlig / Gaelic
- Farsi / Persian
- Français / French
- Maritime Sign Language / American Sign Language
- L'nui'simk / Mi'kmaq

One person will be chosen from each language community to receive intensive film training, attend a Master Class series and receive funding to create a short film in their respective language. The participants will be paired with a local mentor and an established director mentor who will provide support, guidance and feedback throughout the filmmaking process.

Successful applicants will be chosen by a peer selection committee composed of individuals with a connection to the language/culture being celebrated. Applicants are encouraged to reflect on the theme of language and culture in their project concept.

Please provide the following information via the Application Form:

- 1) Name of applicant
- 2) Indicate language background and/or connection to one of five languages being celebrated
- 3) Proposed title of your film
- 4) Describe your idea for your film
- 5) Tell us about yourself
- 6) Describe your idea in more detail

Deadline to apply is Monday February 12th @ midnight
